AIAIO – The coin that says "oh, no" to AI

PROJECT

The intention behind AIAIO is to build a strong community of people that want to discuss, think and share concerns about AI in general AI is here to stay and we all use it and will continue to use it, but we believe that most people are treating this like a bubble (dot.com, whatever) and not understanding that we are at the precipice of a truly LIFE ALTERING moment for humanity, where we will no longer be the smartest beings on the planet.
